KENMORE HIGH SCHOOL Akron, Ohio

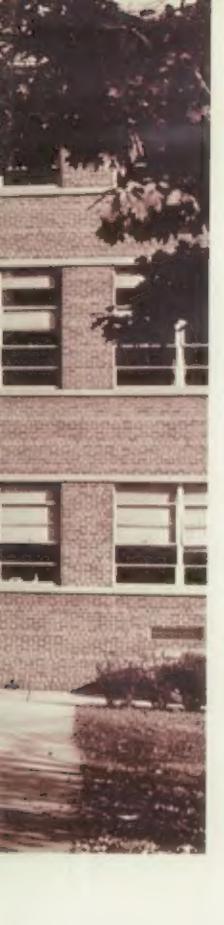

FOREWORD

We hope this yearbook will serve as a permanent record of your activities which, although dimmed by the passage of time, may be quickly brought back into light as you turn the pages.

Time that has passed can never return, but the memories of your high school days will always linger on. We have tried to incorporate in this yearbook, the friends, the teachers, and the events that you will want to remember for the rest of your life.

The editors and staff of the Cardinal would like to express their sincere thanks to all those who have helped and aided in making this '62 Cardinal a success.

Ken and Kathy Cardinal have 40 extra curricular activities at Kenmore from which to choose. The clubs' objectives vary widely. For example, the Science Club wishes: "To promote study and interest in science (biology, chemistry, physics) among students," while the Booster Club tries "To boost school spirita".

Our organizations help students to develop many good qualities.

Leadership
Sportsmanship
Initiative
Responsibility
Tact
Cooperation
Moral Strength
Self-Discipline

These are things that our clubs and organizations can develop in you. The protection of our democracy is every man's responsibility. The school gives each of us "tools" that we may use to fulfill our responsibility as citizens. The class room gives us many of these "tools," but our clubs give us several that a class will not give.

IN APPRECIATION

Now that the 1902 Cardanal Yearbook has been completed, the entire staff can gave a sigh of relici. We can say farewell to the heetic days just before a deadline and to all the other responsibilities of putting out a yearbook.

To each member of the staff, I would like to express my sincere thanks for a job well done. Beverly Bickey, who was managing editor, was helpful in many ways.

Maroyn Richards feature editor, along with her assistants, Gerry Williams and Paniela Prentice, accomplished the job of getting all of the semois and their activities into the book in a new and interesting way.

Karen Amab, and her assistant Carolyn Gondos worked on the job of organizing the rander classmen section of the book. This particular section includes all of Kenmore's students except the seniors.

Janet Grace, who was alloy assisted by Sharon Grether and Sindra-Lauser, did a fine job on the club section of the book.

Jamee Hope and Domas Dve worked d ligently over the sports pages. Jamee was helped by Patti McKiernan in the circulation of the newspaper and yearbook.

The faculty section was handled by George Ethanyi and his assistant Donna Dve

Without business manager Robert Myers, his assistants Panaela Prentice and Jim Welling, and the many local and area firms they contacted, this yearbook would not have been possible.

Trances Knapp and Judy Groctz, our able typists, always can eithrough when we needed them most even though they were busy with newspaper stories.

John Payre and Pariela King both added their own special touches to this book. When ever we needed a picture on the spot, John was ready to help. Pamela's fine art work can be found throughout the book.

The strift and I would like to think Mr. Joseph Triedmin our advisor, who has been of tremendous Eelp in presenting ideas and suggestions in the making of this vearbook. Our smeete thanks go to our patrons and advertisers, and to all those other fine people who may have been madvertently man entroped. We hope that this book will hold wonderful memories for all for many years to come.

Thank you again,

Yvonne Williams Editor-in-Chief
